

John Deere Classic

2010 Volunteer Code of Conduct

I promise to:

- be an ambassador for the tournament
- be on time for each shift assigned to me
- not seek autographs or pictures while on duty
- not drink alcoholic beverages while working. If I choose to drink alcohol after my shift, I will remove my tournament identification
- not initiate a conversation with a player, but instead speak only if spoken to
- be supportive of all players
- be knowledgeable about the course layout and location of amenities in an effort to be friendly and helpful to our patrons
- stay outside of the ropes when off duty
- use appropriate behavior and language and refrain from profanity
- try to pick up trash on the holes, grounds and / or parking areas
- face the crowd when marshaling
- locate myself approximately one arms length inside the ropes for any duties
- sit only when there is not group activity approaching or leaving my area
- not impair the view of our patrons
- welcome and help new volunteers with any questions or concerns
- have fun
